

Skilled Workers Needed: Investing in Career and Technical Education

References and Data Sources

References

¹ “Career and Technical Education Centers in Pennsylvania.” Department of Education, www.google.com/maps/d/viewer?mid=1La30REnkRewXhmDTkInc7wfZHaLgHpud&ll=40.234713038825184,-79.51958736123811&z=7

² Cullen, J. (2017, October 10). Testimony to the Senate Education Subcommittee on Career and Technical Education. Speech presented at Current Issues Facing Career & Technical Education in Lancaster County Career and Technology Center, Mount Joy.

³ Final Report of the Select Subcommittee on Technical Education and Career Readiness (Rep.). (2016). Retrieved October 13, 2018, from <https://www.iop.pitt.edu/sites/default/files/Reports/Other/Select-Subcommittee-on-Technical-Education-and-Career-Readiness-Final-Report-FINAL.pdf>. p. 2.

⁴ Final Report of the Select Subcommittee on Technical Education and Career Readiness (Rep.). (2016). Retrieved October 13, 2018, from <https://www.iop.pitt.edu/sites/default/files/Reports/Other/Select-Subcommittee-on-Technical-Education-and-Career-Readiness-Final-Report-FINAL.pdf>. p. 15.

⁵ Final Report of the Select Subcommittee on Technical Education and Career Readiness (Rep.). (2016). Retrieved October 13, 2018, from <https://www.iop.pitt.edu/sites/default/files/Reports/Other/Select-Subcommittee-on-Technical-Education-and-Career-Readiness-Final-Report-FINAL.pdf>. p. 62.

Data Sources

Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children analyzed data provided by the Pennsylvania Department of Labor & Industry, Center for Workforce Information & Analysis on the fastest growing occupations that require up to an associate degree.

###